

What will I learn?

October 21, 2009

“Finding the Funny in Leadership”

Presented by

Laura Deveau, Humorist and Director of Residence Life, Mt. Ida College

Being a leader amongst your peers can be frustrating, but also quite funny at times! Explore how to keep your sense of humor when things seem especially un-funny.

Bedford Campus, Campus Center 216

November 4, 2009

“Marketing Your Leadership”

Presented by

Peter Fowler, Assistant Dean of Students, Wentworth Institute of Technology

Your involvement experience on campus is a huge asset in your professional development, especially in this tough economy. This session will review how you can take that experience and turn it into a powerful resume builder.

Bedford Campus, Campus Center 216

November 18, 2009

“The Power of Language”

Presented by

Liz Golen, Director of Student Activities, Holyoke Community College

Learn about your and others' values and identity through activity and discussion, that explore the words we use to describe each other and the power those words can hold. Participants will leave with a better understanding of appreciating diversity and choosing their words with care and respect in mind.

Lowell Campus, City 302

December 2, 2009

“Volunteer Leadership: Stuff You Never Knew”

Presented by

Karen Boss, Director of Programs, Boston Cares

Do you already volunteer somewhere? Or would you like to? How can you bring your leadership experience from campus into the community? There's so much to know! We'll talk about volunteering, volunteer leadership and more at this session.

Bedford Campus, Campus Center 216

February 17, 2010

“Assertiveness and Constructive Confrontation”

Presented by

Michael Miller, Motivational Speaker, High Impact Training

Tired of being a doormat? Are you left saying, “I should have said something!” after interactions? Let's learn a framework for communication that leaves both parties satisfied.

Lowell Campus, City 302

March 10, 2010

“Using Your Head for More than a Hat Rack”

Presented by

Ken Abrams, CEO, Fun Enterprises

Creativity is becoming a scarce commodity in our society. This FUN hour promises that you'll get excited about adding creativity to your programs, get some great ideas and recharge your batteries.

Bedford Campus, Campus Center 216

April 14, 2010

“The Power of Positive Thinking”

Presented by

Heather Lorenz, Assistant Dean of Students, Southern New Hampshire State University

Make the most of your leadership potential simply by staying positive! Attend this workshop to learn how you can accomplish this and make positive thinking a regular habit!

Lowell Campus, City 302