Welcome to Middlesex Community College!

Middlesex Community College has graduated more than 12,000 people since 1971, and during the past two decades, has grown from a single building in Bedford to a major, two-campus institution of higher education located in Lowell and Bedford.

Today, Middlesex offers 71 programs of study in the fields of science and technology, business, health, human services, office administration and liberal arts. A choice of academic and career-specific programs can prepare students either for transfer to further higher education, or for a particular area of employment. Fifty-five percent of students attend part-time, and range in age from 18 to 64.

The college is committed to educational opportunity and instructional excellence. Faculty, advisors, counselors and other professional staff are actively involved in support systems that give students the confidence and study skills needed for academic progress.

Associate in Science in Liberal Studies-Paralegal

Paralegals assist lawyers in gathering and analyzing factual data, researching legal questions and preparing legal documents in law firms, corporate legal departments, social service agencies and similar settings. The program's emphasis provides solid preparation for this field, and the core curriculum in general education enhances the specialized knowledge gained in the concentration courses.
