Welcome to Middlesex Community College

Middlesex Community College has graduated more than 12,000 people since 1971, and during the past two decades, has grown from a single building in Bedford to a major, two-campus institution of higher education located in Lowell and Bedford.

Today, you have to take future prospects into consideration at every stage of your education. At Middlesex, we help you connect your goals and ambitions with the knowledge and skills you will need to achieve them. Middlesex offers 71 certificate and associate degree programs, many of them designed to equip you for the current and future job market.

The college is committed to educational opportunity and instructional excellence. Faculty, advisors, counselors and other professional staff are actively involved in support systems that give students the confidence and study skills needed for academic progress.

Associate in Science in Criminal Justice

The Law Enforcement option associate in science degree Criminal Justice program is designed for students interested in working as police officers and in other law enforcement careers. This option provides students with a strong foundation in criminal justice and the opportunity to focus their studies in the area of law enforcement and policing. The curriculum emphasizes both an academic and practical approach to the three major areas of criminal justice – the police, courts and corrections – providing students with basic knowledge of legal issues facing practitioners in these fields. Emphasis is placed on oral and written communications, as well as interpersonal skill building and understanding of the multicultural issues necessary for working with diverse populations.
