Welcome to Middlesex Community College

Middlesex Community College has graduated more than 12,000 people since 1971, and during the past two decades, has grown from a single building in Bedford to a major, two-campus institution of higher education located in Lowell and Bedford.

Today, you have to take future prospects into consideration at every stage of your education. At Middlesex, we help you connect your goals and ambitions with the knowledge and skills you will need to achieve them. Middlesex offers 71 certificate and associate degree programs, many of them designed to equip you for the current and future job market.

The college is committed to educational opportunity and instructional excellence. Faculty, advisors, counselors and other professional staff are actively involved in support systems that give students the confidence and study skills needed for academic progress.

Associate in Arts in Liberal Arts and Sciences-Global Studies

The Global Studies associate in arts, Liberal Arts and Sciences degree program is an interdisciplinary program of study that examines social, cultural, environmental and political issues within a world historical context. The program challenges students to critically evaluate the commonalities and differences within various cultural and social frameworks, and looks at relationships between international and national systems that influence the world community.
