Hiring is a delicate balance. You need to fill important roles fast, but at the same time, you need to find the right people.

LinkedIn Jobs can help you find great candidates quickly by promoting your jobs to qualified people you can't find anywhere else.

Here's why:

- 70% of the U.S. workforce is on LinkedIn.
- 9 out of 10 LinkedIn members are open to new opportunities, and most aren't visiting job boards.
- LinkedIn learns the skills and experience you're looking for, then recommends the right people for your role.
- LinkedIn targets your role to the most relevant candidates through email and their LinkedIn newsfeed.
- Customers say LinkedIn Jobs is 40% better than traditional job boards at delivering qualified candidates.

Start reaching the right candidates. Plus, get $50 off your first job post.
