

Greetings all,

I hope you had a relaxing summer break and are looking forward to a great semester!

As MCC's new Part-Time Faculty Liaison, I am working through the Provost's Office to improve your experience at MCC. My goal is to better connect all adjunct faculty with the college and provide resources to help foster student success.

I am an advocate for all part-time faculty needs and will also disseminate relevant information to you. I have been an adjunct in the English Department for four years, and I understand the many diverse challenges that adjuncts face.

This summer, I have been working to update our adjunct website, Adjunct Junction, which now includes a variety of resources, from helping you with HR to building your courses and mentoring students. Visit Adjunct Junction at www.middlesex.mass.edu/adjunctjunction.

I also will be emailing you throughout the year with relevant resources and information. But I also need to hear from you! It is so important that we understand your experiences, concerns, questions and needs. Toward that end, we have designed a quick survey to assess the needs of adjunct faculty.

Please take 15-20 minutes to fill out this online survey by September 30th:

In the meantime, I am here to answer any and all questions or concerns, so please feel free contact me at bakerk@middlesex.mass.edu.

I am also available to meet one-on-one at the Teaching Learning & Reflection Center (TLRC) on each campus. Here are my drop-in hours for the Fall 2015 semester:

Mondays: 12:30 to 2 p.m.	Lowell TLRC (bottom level of Lowell library)
Wednesdays: 12:30 to 2 p.m.	Lowell TLRC
Fridays: 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.	Bedford TLRC (located within the Bedford library)

I look forward to hearing from you, and serving as your advocate and liaison.

Best,

Kate Baker
