Fall 2020 Course Offerings
Middlesex will offer four types of courses:

Online
Students will work virtually based on their own schedule.
- Known as asynchronous learning.
- Students will meet course assignment deadlines and engage with faculty and fellow students online.
- Sample Course Listing:
  - ENG 101 - Section 1 – Prof. A – WEBCRSE - (Dates)
- Instructional Method in Course Search: WEB

Scheduled Online
Students will meet virtually during scheduled times each week, completing assignments online.
- Known as synchronous learning.
- Days and times are listed on student schedules for virtual meetings
- A computer with a camera and microphone is required
- Sample Course listing:
  - ENG 101 - Section 2 – Prof. B – MW 9:30 a.m.-10:45 a.m. WEBCRSE - (Dates)
- Instructional Method in Course Search: WEB

Blended / Hybrid
Students will complete work virtually and come to campus to complete practical experiences or lab work in a safe and controlled setting, using personal protective equipment and social distancing.
- Known as hybrid or blended learning.
- Sample Course listing:
  - CHE 151 - Section 3 – Prof. C – MW 9:30 a.m.-10:45 a.m. Web & On-Campus Lab
- Instructional Method in Course Search: WEB & On-Campus

Traditional On-Campus
Some STEM, Health, and Performing Arts courses will require students to attend classes at campus or off-campus locations, while adhering to safety guidelines
- Known as lecture or traditional learning.
- Sample Course listing:
  - THE 110 - Section 4 – Prof. D – W 2:00 p.m. –4:45 p.m. Lowell Campus - (Dates)
- Instructional Method in Course Search: LECTURE

Statement regarding Personal Protective Equipment & Social Distancing
MCC has established strict safety protocols for when students must come to campus for a class. This includes wearing proper Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and following social distancing guidelines. Appropriate measures will be taken to ensure the safety of all MCC community members. Everyone is expected to wear a mask and follow posted social distancing guidelines while on campus.

Fall 2020 Semester Options: When selecting Fall 2020 semester courses, please remember that courses may be full semester (Sept. 9 through Dec. 23), Mini-mester 1 (Sept. 9 through October 28), or Mini-mester 2 (November 2 through December 23).