Milestone Courses
should be taken in the order shown. This will help you stay on track and graduate on time.

Helpful Hints

- Students should begin their Middlesex experience by taking the foundation-level courses (English and mathematics) along with COM 101 – Introduction to Communication Media and COM 104 – Message Design. COM Program electives vary by students' area of interest.
- Starred (*) courses can be taken any time after completion of the first semester of the program.

Career and Transfer Outlook

Most in the A.S. Communication Transfer degree program continue their studies toward a bachelor's degree. Students should check the requirements of the transfer institution and meet with Communication faculty for specific program planning. Students may pursue studies in fields such as digital media, social media, journalism, public relations, advertising, film, television, and radio production.
