The Robert Minue Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established in August of 2011 by the family, friends and colleagues of Robert “Bob” Minue to honor his memory. Over his thirty year career with the Massachusetts State Board of Retirement, Bob was known as a reformer who understood the arcane provisions of retirement law and implemented them with personal empathy. He was a role model and mentor to a generation of public servants and embodied the finest qualities of service, dedication and leadership.
