

MIDDLESEX
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

IDS 105: Interdisciplinary Weekend

April 20-21, 2012

Connections Across Asia - 1 Credit

Explore Asia's diverse cultural traditions and connections with the west through

- Art and Literature
- History and Philosophy
- Music and Dance
- Food
- Economics and Science

With lectures from experts, readings, group discussions and hands-on workshops, students will experience the culture and diversity of Asia in today's world. There will also be a guided museum visit.

This one credit course can fulfill a humanities, science, or social science requirement or count as a free elective toward graduation or full time status. Friday dinner and Saturday lunch included.

Prerequisites: Eligibility for ENG 101 and MAT 080 or completion of Math Ramp Up Modules 1-8

Register for IDS 105 Bedford campus

14933	80	F	2:30pm-7:30pm	B	4/20/12	TBA
		S	9am-3pm	B	4/21/12	TBA

For more information contact Dona Cady, Associate Dean of Humanities and Asian Studies cadyd@middlesex.mass.edu or 1-800-818-3434