Travel to China to read and experience China’s history, culture, and literature. From Confucius and Mao, to the Great Wall and Shanghai, students in this interdisciplinary course will explore the fascinating world of China, its people, politics, and culture. Travel from May 22 - June 5, 2015 to Beijing, Xi’an, Suzhou, Shanghai, Hangzhou.

https://www.middlesex.mass.edu/globaleducation/

Cost:
$4,300 for trip and one 3 credit course
$4,850 for trip and two 3 credit courses

Students may take this study abroad for 3 Credits:
ENG 102 English Composition II: Introduction to Literature OR ENG 111 Chinese Literature OR
HUM/SOC 121 The China Experience

Student may also take an additional 3 credits:
HST 131 History of World Civilization After 1500
SOC/HST 128 Modern China
Co-enrollment in a Chinese Language class (LAN 191 or LAN 192) strongly recommended

Deposit Due: $200 non-refundable with application

Faculty Leaders:
Priscilla Eng, English and ELL (Engp@middlesex.mass.edu)
Shelley Hawks, History and Art (hawkss@middlesex.mass.edu)

This program supports MCC’s Written & Oral Communication, Multicultural/Global Literacy, and Critical Thinking, Institutional Student Learning Outcomes.