Join us in Italy in the Summer of 2014!

In June of 2014 Marc Mannheimer & another Faculty member will be leading a group of up to 17 students to Florence, Italy home of the Italian Renaissance, Michelangelo, Leonardo da Vinci, Galileo and Dante as well as many other well-known artists, scientists & writers. Through an agreement with the Florence University of the Arts you will be earning 6 credits: 3 with NECC in the Art History of Florence, taught by Marc Mannheimer and 3 chosen from a wide range of courses offered by PALAZZI. All courses are transferable and will be recorded on your NECC transcript.

You will of course be experiencing 3 wonderful weeks of Italian Art, Food and Culture in one of the most beautiful, accessible and exciting cities in Europe within 1 ½ hrs. of Rome, 45 mins to Pisa & 3 hours to Venice! This will be a marvelous and educational experience!

The Program Includes:

- One course: Monday through Friday (45 contact hours each) -to be selected from the PALAZZI 2014 Summer catalogue - 3 Credits
- Accommodation in fully furnished shared apartments located in the Florence Renaissance center in multiple occupancy room.
- Orientation session
- Information/Orientation Folder
- Airport pick-up in Florence, upon arrival for group flight
- Cell phones for Local Calls - (outgoing calls will be charged individually)
- Extracurricular activities
- Use of the school gym
- Advisor on call 24/7
- Free internet access in school facilities in Florence
- Transportation with private bus or train during sponsored field trips.
- Farewell dinner
- PALAZZI meal plan vouchers
- HTH World Wide Health Insurance
- Airfare.

Not Included: The NECC tuition, transportation to & From Logan Airport (to be discussed); Personal money, other meals – the apartments all have full kitchens.
Cost TBA: The cost of this course, tuition, and additional expenses are eligible for financial aid.

If you are interested please contact one of the following for an application and to discuss the course:

Professor Marc Mannheimer:
Office in B302
mmannheimer@necc.mass.edu
(978) 556-3242
[Cell] 978 204-1017
Professor Marcy Yeager (Coordinator for International Studies) :
Office in E259
myeager@necc.mass.edu
(978)-556-3326