Monthly Highlight – Performance Recognition Program (PRP)Christina Kelley

Join us in celebrating the awarding the PRP Citation Award to Christina Kelley, a testament to her impactful role at our College. Christina is an outstanding professional whose recent accomplishments have significantly impacted our institution and the higher education community. She leads with excellence, collaborating effectively within our institution and across the sector. Christina's innovative approach to leveraging new technologies has streamlined our procurement processes and increased transparency. Under her guidance, our procurement training programs have thrived, offering both in-class and online sessions. Notably, she has automated the bid process and facilitated joint bids with other institutions, fostering synergy and efficiency. Her exceptional leadership, collaboration, and innovation make her a deserving nominee for recognition.
