Study Buddies
Available now in the Navigate app!

Connect
with students from each of your classes who are interested in studying together outside of class.

Use email to connect with students in your class section who are interested in finding study buddies.

Improve your grades by studying with others
In a 2015 study, students who quizzed each other in study groups got higher grades than those who studied alone.