

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES AT MCC

Student will be able to:	1	2	3	4
#1 Demonstrate knowledge of significant global issue(s)	Student is unaware of global issues, or has misconceptions re: global issue(s)	Student has limited awareness or knowledge of significant global issue(s)	Student can demonstrate substantial depth of knowledge of global issue(s)	Student can apply* knowledge of global issue(s)
#2 Compare physical conditions and cultural practices of their own cultures with those of others through an interdisciplinary approach	Student is unable to recognize physical conditions and cultural practices of their own cultures with those of others through an interdisciplinary approach	Student has limited ability to compare physical conditions and cultural practices of their own cultures with those of others through an interdisciplinary approach	Student can demonstrate substantial ability to compare physical conditions and cultural practices of their own cultures with those of others through an interdisciplinary approach	Student can apply* knowledge of physical conditions and cultural practices of their own cultures with those of others through an interdisciplinary approach
#3 Recognize and appreciate the ways in which people in their community, nation, and throughout the world are increasingly interconnected	Student is unaware of the ways in which people in their community, nation, and throughout the world are increasingly interconnected	Student has limited ability to recognize and appreciate the ways in which people in their community, nation, and throughout the world are increasingly interconnected	Student can demonstrate substantial ability to recognize and appreciate the ways in which people in their community, nation, and throughout the world are increasingly interconnected	Student can apply* knowledge of the ways in which people in their community, nation, and throughout the world are increasingly interconnected.
#4 Communicate an appreciation for the diverse forms of creativity as expressed through the arts locally, regionally, and globally as well as the value of cultural expression	Student is unable to communicate an appreciation for the diverse forms of creativity as expressed through the arts locally, regionally, and globally as well as the value of cultural expression	Student has limited ability to communicate an appreciation for the diverse forms of creativity as expressed through the arts locally, regionally, and globally as well as the value of cultural expression	Student can substantially communicate an appreciation for the diverse forms of creativity as expressed through the arts locally, regionally, and globally as well as the value of cultural expression	Student can apply* knowledge an appreciation for the diverse forms of creativity as expressed through the arts locally, regionally, and globally as well as the value of cultural expression

*To apply knowledge is to use, analyze, or problem solve.

Global Perspectives ISLO Committee and contributors (faculty and staff):

Ellen Nichols, Hazel Piper, Barbara Dexter-Smith, Barbara Noonan, Kevan Murphy, Rob Kaulfuss, Lynda Pintrich, Maryanne Mungovan, Pat Demaras, Ivette Caletz, Nancy Mizzoni, Kent Mitchell, Darcy Orellana, David Kalivas