Articulation Agreement
Leading to the Bachelor’s Degree
Middlesex Community College
And
Anna Maria College

I. General Statement of Purpose
Anna Maria College, (AMC), agrees to articulate with Middlesex Community College by providing opportunities for appropriately qualified students in Associate’s Degree programs to complete a Bachelor’s degree at AMC. This agreement is designed to facilitate the educational mobility and transfer of students from Middlesex Community College to AMC.

II. Requirements and Terms:
AMC and Middlesex Community College agree that any student who has earned an Associate’s degree may transfer their credits toward a Bachelor’s degree at AMC. The bachelor’s degree graduation requirements for students who follow this articulation agreement are as follows:

A. Students who have completed an Associate’s Degree and who have a cumulative average of 2.3 or above will be accepted into AMC with core complete. Transfer student applicants who do not meet these criteria will be evaluated individually.

B. A grade of C, (2.0 on a 4.0 scale), or better is required for a course to be transferred to AMC.

C. Under this agreement, Middlesex Community College students are required to complete a minimum of 60 credits or 20 courses at AMC. AMC will only take 60 credits of transfer credits for full-time students. If the student is part-time at AMC, we will take up to 75 transfer credits. Students must meet all requirements needed for a Bachelor’s degree.

D. A minimum of 120 credits are required for graduation to obtain a Bachelor’s degree.

E. A student must comply with the individual program requirements that are in effect at the time the specific program is selected.
F. Students under this agreement receive equal consideration with others seeking financial aid.

G. AMC and Middlesex Community College agree to communicate any curriculum changes and policies which affect the agreed upon relationship. Both parties reserve the right to amend or revise by mutual consent and in writing this agreement or to change curriculum, whenever feasible.

H. AMC will designate an official(s) who will be responsible for all aspects of the articulation program at AMC. Middlesex Community College will designate an individual(s) responsible for all aspects of this agreement at Middlesex Community College.

I. AMC and Middlesex Community College will review this agreement every year and make adjustments or amendments as deemed appropriate to maintain the integrity of each institution as well as for the improvement of the transfer process and student articulation. If agreed upon, pending review, a renewal of the agreement may be signed.

J. The two institutions further agree to communicate to respective publics of the established relationships. This may include informational sessions on the campuses of Middlesex Community College.

K. Either AMC or Middlesex Community College may terminate the agreement by notifying the other party in writing 90 days in advance. Should the agreement be terminated, any Middlesex Community College student who has designated and selected this articulation program prior to termination will be allowed to complete the program within a three year period of time.

L. This articulation agreement does not preclude AMC from entering into similar agreements with other institutions of higher education.

M. This agreement is effective on the date of signatures by both institutions.
